これから放送する対話は、高校生のこうじさんと、こうじさんの学校で英語を教えているブラウン先生が、放課後、職員室で行った対話です。対話につづいて5つの質問をします。対話及び質問は2回放送します。必要があれば、メモを取ってもかまいません。

問題A

Koji : Hi, Ms. Brown. Do you have time to talk with me for a few minutes?

Ms. Brown: Oh, hi, Koji. Sure. What's up?

Koji : Well, I hear you came to Japan when you were a high school student. I will go to Canada to study English next year. So can you tell me what I should do now?

Ms. Brown: Oh, really. I'm happy to hear that. Well, Koji, first you should study English hard. Of course you will learn it in Canada, but there're many things you can do here in Japan. For example, you can learn a lot in English classes. At home you can listen to English on the radio.

Koji : I see. You mean I need to study English hard before going to Canada. Is that right?

Ms. Brown: That's right. And then people in Canada will ask you many questions about your country, so you should know a lot about Japan. It's important to tell other people about your own country.

Koji : Yes, that's true. Thank you, Ms. Brown. By the way, when you first came to Japan, did you have any problems?

Ms. Brown: Of course, I did. Everything was new to me because there were a lot of differences between the two countries. So I didn't know what to do. But people around me were very kind and they always helped me. And I tried to understand those differences. It's not easy to understand them but I think it's very important.

Koji : I see. I worried about going to Canada because there're many things I don't know, but your story has made me happy. I'd like to try a lot of things in Canada.

Ms. Brown: That's a good idea. When you start something new, it always looks difficult. But you should try to do it.

Koji : Thank you very much, Ms. Brown. Can I come to talk with you sometimes?

Ms. Brown: Sure. I'm always happy to talk with you.
