Eijirou KURISAKA	TEL		It is Kure that I recommend to those who have visited Hiroshima once or stay in Hiroshima more than 2 days. Kure is a city that is 35 minutes away from Hiroshima Station by JR rapid train, and there are 2 maritime museums in less than a 10-minute walk from Kure Station. One is "Kure Maritime Museum" known as "Yamato Museum," and the other is "Japan Maritime Self Defense Force(JMSDF) Kure Museum" known as "The Whale of Iron Museum. " In "Yamato Museum" you can see the history, shipbuilding technology, etc. of Kure including 1/10 model of battleship Yamato built in Kure. And in "The Whale of Iron Museum" you will also be able to visit the actual submarine on the ground for free. I have careers more than ten years as an officer of JMSDF, so I am good at a deep commentary of those museums.	Hiroshima City (Atomic Bomb Dome, Hiroshima Castle, Shukkeien, etc.) Miyajima area (Itsukushima Shrine, Mt. According to your needs, I would like to help you enjoy your travel by using easily understandable English. I especially recommend you to explore my hometown Onomichi. It prospered as a merchant's town between 12th and 19th century. Many of its old streets and buildings are remaining as they were because they were not bombed during World War Two. It was registered as a Japan Heritage site three times. It is famous for its scenery like a "miniature garden" condensed with nostalgic streets and valuable temples between the Onomichi Channel and the three Onomichi mountains. Katsunori Tsukumoto	TEL	08057536265	I've spent most of my life in Hiroshima Prefecture. After graduating, I got a job in the manufacturing industry in the prefecture and worked there until retirement. When I become interested in something, I like to tackle it at my own pace. Thanks to that, I was able to obtain the Hiroshima Prefectural Government Licensed Guide Interpreter. In 2025, I started interpreting guides in Miyajima and Hiroshima City. Hiroshima also has many tourist attractions, including Miyajima and Peace Memorial park. When you look closely, you can see many things:Connections with Osaka, Kyoto and other cities, the history of Japanese culture, connections with Japanese mythology, and so on. I will help you to experience new discoveries and surprises. Of course, I will show you wonderful views that can be enjoyed without thinking too much.
